CANNED FOOD DRIVE AND CHRISTMAS GIFT BAGS FOR OUR HOMELESS NEIGHBORS

Now is the time to start bringing in your nonperishable items for our food collection for collection for the pantry at Little Sisters of the Assumption Family Health Services. At the same time, as part of our parish family our Faith Formation Families will be collecting and putting together Christmas gift bags for our Homeless brothers and sisters. We are inviting all parishioners to help with this good work by donating travel size personal care items (toothpaste, wipes, band aids, etc) as well as individual sized protein items (packets of tuna, chicken or salmon), and as a special treat: $5 gift cards for a hot drink i.e. McDonalds, Dunkin, Starbucks, or someplace similar. Water bottles are needed too! We will be collecting all these items in November and December as a way to make our Catholic faith come alive for ourselves and our young parishioners. Thank you so much for your support. (PS, we learned last year that you could order whatever you wanted on Amazon and ship it right to the parish, if that makes this easier for you!! <http://bit.ly/holidaySFDS>)

SOCIAL JUSTICE MEET UP

Do you find yourself thinking: “the church should...” Don’t we all! If you care about how we as a church are responding to the needs of our day, and want to do something to make a difference, please contact Pat Latona (palatona27@gmail.com) for information on our next scheduled Social Justice Ministry meeting.

FRANK TALKS THANK YOU AND WELCOME!

Thank you to our parishioners Cristina Garcia and Lisa Kelly who took the time this past Thursday evening to speak with a small group on their work in the realm of criminal justice. The evening which was co-sponsored by Commonweal Magazine was incredibly informative. The passion for justice that these women, our parishioners bring to their work every day is incredibly inspiring. We are grateful for their ministry on our behalf!

Mark your calendars now for Thursday, Dec 5th when parishioners Carmen Gama, who is a designer for Eileen Fisher Co. will speak with us about ideas for creating a more SUSTAINABLE CHRISTMAS SEASON. Better for our world, better for our hearts and souls! Come and be a part of the conversation!! Dec 5th 7pm. RSVP to Lydia@sfdsnyc.org

THANKSGIVING MASS

Thursday November 28th @ 11am

Join us for our Thanksgiving Mass! This Mass will be bilingual. Since many people are out of town with their family, we ask all attendees to help where they see need, for example with hospitality or singing with enthusiasm. The church Office will be closed on Thursday Nov. 28th.

CAMPAÑA DE COMIDA ENLATADA Y BOLSAS DE REGALO DE NAVIDAD PARA NUESTROS VECINOS SIN HOGAR

Ahora es el momento de comenzar a traer sus artículos no perecederos para nuestra recolección de alimentos para la despensa de los Servicios de Salud Familiar de Little Sisters of the Assumption. Al mismo tiempo, como parte de nuestra familia parroquial, nuestras Familias de Formación de Fe estarán reuniendo y armando bolsas de regalos de Navidad para nuestros hermanos y hermanas sin hogar. Estamos invitando a todos los feligreses a ayudar con este buen trabajo mediante la donación de artículos de cuidado personal de tamaño de viaje (pasta de dientes, toallitas desechables, curitas etc.), así como artículos de proteínas de tamaño individual (paquetes de atún, pollo o salmón), calcetines (medias) calientes (!) y como un regalo especial: tarjetas de regalo de $ 5 para una bebida caliente, es decir, McDonalds, Dunkin, Starbucks o un lugar similar. ¡También se necesitan botellas de agua! Recolectaremos todos estos artículos en Noviembre y Diciembre como una forma de hacer que nuestra fe católica cobre vida para nosotros y nuestros jóvenes feligreses. Muchas gracias por su apoyo. (PS: El año pasado supimos que usted puede ordenar lo que quisieras en Amazon y enviarlo directamente a la parroquia, ¡si esto es más fácil para ti! <http://bit.ly/holidaySFDS>)
